Tongariro

Clean lines, modern and highly practical are three words that sum up this designer home. Inside are four bedrooms an additional office, a study nook for the kids, a dedicated media room, a large scullery, and an ensuite that will put a smile on your face! Two nice features of this home are the optional fireplace in the ensuite opposite the bath and the office located just off the master via a private hallway. If your home is your sanctuary, this is a build for you!
